KITCHEN

The kitchen has a commercial LP gas range (six burners, two conventional ovens, and a grill), a commercial refrigerator, commercial freezer, an ice machine, adequate counter and cupboard space, and a three-well sink for washing dishes and pots and pans. The kitchen is supplied with plates, cups, bowls, tumblers, flatware, and serving pieces. A serving counter faces the dining area. Food preparation utensils and containers are well-stocked, including large spoons, forks, ladles, spatulas, tongs, sharp knives, large bowls, sheet pans, roasting pans, a coffee maker, pitchers, funnels, strainer/colander, whisk, etc.

- Please do not use disposable products such as paper plates, plastic cups, tableware, etc.
- Plan to bring all consumable goods such as paper towels, toilet paper, 10-cup basket-style coffee filters, trash bags, dish towels, soap, cleaning supplies, etc.
- Please plan to haul your garbage to a dumpster located on the property.
- BBQ barrels are available, but you must bring your own charcoal, firewood, and starter.

DINING

The Dining Hall is adjacent to the kitchen, separated only by a serving counter and partial wall and doubles as a meeting room. A large fireplace dominates one end of the room (bring firewood). An adjacent open porch and deck furnished with picnic tables and benches provides additional dining/meeting space. The Dining Hall is heated but not air-conditioned.

WATERFRONT

The water is quiet but deep and safe only for competent swimmers. There is no wading area.

- A certified lifeguard must supervise all waterfront activity.
- While fishing, please observe our "catch & release" policy.
- Canoes are available. Personal flotation devices are provided and must be worn in the canoes.

PAVILIONS

An open-air covered pavilion can be used for meetings, worship, activities, etc. It has bench seats and is surrounded on two sides by a deck which affords additional seating.

RECREATION

- A natural amphitheater facing the river is an ideal site for a campfire—firewood is not furnished.
- Hiking trails are nearby.
- Large playing field suitable for soccer, softball, capture-the-flag and other large group games.
- Sand volleyball and half-court basketball courts are located near the playing field. You must provide your own sports equipment.
